Dear Andy:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued contributions to our Accounts Receivable collections effort. Your client relations techniques have been very successful in greatly improving our receivables outlook.

We have been pleased with the remarkable results we have seen due to your interaction with our project managers. Your efforts have resulted in fewer delinquencies as client issues are addressed earlier, avoiding delays.

As you know, the year end push to collect outstanding invoices is critical to us and your work to that end has been invaluable.

Personally, I enjoy working with you. I find your manner to be professional but, at the same time easy.

Again, thank you.

Sincerely,

BARTONPARTNERS, INC.
